第四部分 写作

短文改错

This summer holiday I went to Nanluoguxiang in Beijing with my parents. First, we took ^ walk in Hutong to feel the style of the old buildings. They were such amazing that we always stopped to take pictures or have a close look. Second, we pay a visit to a Hutong family and had a short talk with them, what gave us a chance to learn about many stories of the past. And then we entered into a tea house, where we tasted all kinds of Chinese tea. Most important, we enjoyed Peking Opera while drink tea. On the way, I bought some paper cuttings as gift for my friends. It was indeed a good choice to know about the history of Beijing, but I am looking forward to visiting them once more.

I am quite happy to get the news that the Students' Sign Language Club of our school has been set up. How exciting! When it comes to how to make our activities interesting and meaningful, I'd like to share my thoughts and offer some personal suggestions. Firstly, it is a good idea to invite some sign language experts to give us lectures on a weekly basis. Secondly, in order to show our care, we can regularly visit the deaf students in special schools and learn to interact with them, which is also a valuable chance to put what we learn into practice. Only in this way can we truly appreciate the beauty of sign language and build a bridge between the hearing and the deaf souls.
